GROUP 4

a) Prime numbers: Prime number is a natural number greater than 1 that is not a product of two smaller natural numbers.

b) Commutative law: The commutative law states that the order in which you add or multiply two real numbers does not affect the result.